Smith-Tillman Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

ELDER COOK TO PREACH
In THREE DAY MEETING AT UPPER BLOCK CREEK

Elder W. T. Cook of Nashville, Ga., will assist the regular pastor, Elder Henry Waters, in a three-day meeting to be held at Upper Block Creek Primitive Baptist Church beginning on February 19, and continue through Sunday, February 21. Morning services will begin at 11 o'clock and evening services at 7:30. The public is invited.

Homemakers who realize what a prize package of vitamin C is stored in sweet potatoes will want to use this vegetable often this winter.

Cash farm income in Georgia during the first eight months of 1953 was four per cent less than for the same period in 1952.

The Evans Construction Co., of Warrenton, has received the contract on the health and physical education building at Georgia Teachers College and work is to be started right away.

Dr. Zach S. Henderson, G.T.C. president, says he hopes the building will be completed and in use by January of next year. The firm was low bidder on the project with a figure slightly less than $250,000.

The complete membership list of the club in addition to those named above are: Elder V. F. Agan, E. L. Akins, W. H. Aldred, Dr. Hugh F. Arnold, Claude Allen, Ed. Allen, Dr. John Barkdale, Hinton Booth, Bill Bowen, Cliff Bradley, Albert M. Braswell, Jr., Elsie Brumby, Paul Carroll, Walter G. Cobb, G. C. Coleman, Leodel Coleman, James P. Collins, Gilbert S. White, and F. Everett Williams.

Dr. Hamilton is a native of Covington, Ky., but he has been connected with Florida public schools since 1944. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Kentucky, and he earned his doctorate at Florida State University in August of last year. He has been principal of the faculty at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C., since 1951. During the summer of 1951 he was on the visiting faculty at the University of Georgia, where he was a graduate assistant in the school of education.

Dr. Hamilton joins the Georgia Teachers College faculty with the rank of associate professor of education. He will move to College Park, Ga., in the fall and three daughters to commence work March 1.

William A. Early, superintendent of Savannah and Chatham county public schools, and president of the National Education Association, will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Bulloch County G. E. A. here on Tuesday, February 23, at the Statesboro High School auditorium.

All members of the Parent-Teachers Associations are urged to attend this meeting.

Department this week announced that the Division of Vital Statistics of Georgia Department of Public Health, has notified all local registrars that they will not accept any 1953 birth, death, or stillbirth certificates after April 30, 1954, on the forms used to file at the time the event occurred.

According to the local health department officials after April 30, 1954, unregistered 1953 births can be recorded only by the delayed procedure for which there is a fee for filing delayed certificates. There is no charge for filing current birth certificates.

All parents of babies in Bulloch county during the year of 1953 are urged to either call or come by the health department to learn whether or not their baby's birth certificate has been filed. A free certificate of registration will be given each parent.

Dean Hudson Band to play at country club

Clint Anderson, manager of the Forest Heights Country Club, announced today that Dean Hudson Orchestra, widely known orchestra, will play for a special dance at the country club on Tuesday evening, March 2, with dancing from nine p. m. to one a. m. He states that he urges members to secure their tickets in advance from R. J. Kennedy Jr., Dr. Bird Donaldson, or from him at the club.

He is also survived by a brother, Harry Akins of Germantown, Tenn.

She and the alman's father, Linton B. Akins of Germantown, Tenn., had received no definite word about the B-29 which Sgt. Akins was a gunner, since it was shot down by Communist gunfire in North Korea. There was only one known survivor.

A Wonderful Experience

It was a wonderful experience—the dedication of Howell Cone Hall—for “Miss Kate,” as Mrs. Howell Cone is known to all here in Statesboro and Bulloch county.

As Judge J. L. Renfro reviewed the highlights of Howell Cone's life, “Miss Kate” sat there quietly, there in the entrance of that beautiful building. And her mind must have been wandering back over the years when her husband worked hard at helping set the foundations for what has become one of the finest colleges of its kind in the country.

All the hardships, all the heartaches that accompany inspired public service must have softened and become defused as she sat there and listened to Dr. Harmon Caldwell.

well, Chancellor of the University System, pay tribute to the man who was her husband and this section's great citizen.

As she listened to the words of admiration and expression of love from her friends gathered there to share with her great experience she must have arrived at the conclusion that it was worth all it cost.

And now that high tribute has been paid Howell Cone and a great building bears his name, we wish to pay humble tribute to “Miss Kate” Cone.

To us 'tis she who represents all the fine things upon which her husband stood in his serving his community.

Sweepstakes winner too

Georgia Teachers College is growing fast, if not faster than Statesboro.

It's growth is emphasized by the dedication of the new dormitory for men, “Howell Cone Hall,” and the ground breaking for the new health and physical education building, both events of the college's annual homecoming ceremonies last Saturday afternoon.

A drive about the campus of the college will reveal a lot of work done, all of which seems to have been done overnight.

In addition to Howell Cone Hall, there is the recently constructed nursery building. There is the president's new home in final stages of completion. There is the recently renovated auditorium which now seats 887 people. New fire escapes are being constructed on East Hall, one of the girls' dormitories.

There is no denying the fact that Georgia Teachers College is Statesboro's greatest asset, in more ways than just culturally.

We commend the college authorities upon their progress... in any state contest, Georgia Teachers College too could be a sweepstakes winner.

Be careful

Forest fires in Bulloch county increased from seven in January to 41 in the first fourteen days of February.

Two hundred and ninety-eight acres of land have been burned.

And ninety per cent of them were burned because somebody got careless and let the fire “get away.”

This is the time of the year when farmers “burn off” their lands, thinking they are doing the wise thing. They set fire to their lands to clear out underbrush.

We agree that a man owning land has a perfect right to set fire to his woods and to burn off his fields.

But at the same time he exercises his right to put fire out on his own lands he has a responsibility and a duty to see that the fire does not spread to the lands and fields of his neighbors.

It's heartbreaking to a man to see new trees on his land scorched so they die and to see old trees burning torches, because someone set fire and let it get away from him.

J. W. Roberts, Bulloch county forest ranger, says that nearly 100 per cent of our forest fires here in Bulloch county are caused either by carelessness or indifference.

To prevent regret at your fire burning your neighbor's trees exercise extreme care when you start your fire.

Keep our county green. Abandon carelessness and indifference.

Terracing Bulloch county land for erosion control and increase crop yields continues. Mr. J. V. Hardy, just north of Statesboro, has decided, however, that it will pay him better to put that sloping land in pasture and save the expense of terracing it.

Mr. Joe Hart, of Ogeechee, is terracing 85 acres of cropland on his farm. J. S. Stuckey of Middleburg is building terraces on his farm. L. P. Mills, near Denmark, is having his land terraced. Alvin Gerald is doing a fine job of building terraces. Mr. Preston Anderson is building a complete water disposal system on his farm in the Enit section.

Terraces take the excess water off the cropland and turn it loose on a prepared meadow strip which in turn runs into a planned farm pond to be used for livestock water and fish.

Planning for pasture development and improvement is a big item in Bulloch county as of the present. Farmers in every section of the county are planning on some pasture development.

To name a few: Thad Morris, Dan B. Gay, Horace Deal, S. W. Brack, Clarence Brack, E. E. Stewart and B. L. Brown, whose farms are in the Portland community; Henry Banks, Henry Blitch, John Atkins, Bill Mikell, L. C. Deal, H. A. Nesmith, W. A. Bowen and others whose farms are in the Westside community; D. Grover, Henry Quattlebaum, J. R. Kelly, Mrs. L. E. Lindsey, J. Clyde Mitchell and others out Ogeechee way.

M. P. Martin Sr. and M. P. Martin Jr., P. W. Clifton, Mrs. B. B. Reynolds and others in the Stillson community are also planning for pasture development. J. H. Lee, William Cromley, Walter Hendrix, J. J. Moore, Jack Morton, Mrs. J. E. H. Woods and others of Brooklet; Roscoe Roberts, Devoanah Roberts, L. E. Heywood, W. S. Anderson and others of Nevils; C. A. Simmons, John Roach, W. W. Woodcock and others whose farms are in the Warnock and Enit sections; W. W. Olliff, Frank Simmons, E. S. and John Brannen and others of Register; and J. V. Hardy, W. C. Woodruff and others out Middle-ground way.

There's no registration, no fees to pay. Just be there and express your ideas and maybe learn some new ones.

We want no mud

All Georgians like their politics lively.

Some Georgians like their politics muddy.

But the Georgians who are proud of their state, of its accomplishments, of its potential, of its future, while liking their politics lively, want them clean.

Already there is an indication that issues are going to be forgotten.

Already there is an indication that the welfare of the citizens of Georgia is going to be ignored.

Already there is an indication that this campaign is going to break down into a name-calling fracas which will drag Georgia down from its rightful place in the roll of states of the nation.

And it does not have to be that way.

Those who are already “running” and those who may “run” can pitch their campaigns on issues, forgetting personalities, and win the respect and serious consideration of the conscientious and public spirited citizen who intends to vote for the candidate who offers the best for his state.

We suggest that all candidates think on this before their hands become too muddy to change their ways.

Everybody stays alive

The signs say 15 miles per hour. And the signs mean what they say.

Drive 20 miles per hour and you learn the hard way that the signs mean 15 miles per hour.

That's the way the people at Fort McPherson in Atlanta are saving lives.

Traffic rules on the post at that army installation are inflexibly enforced with the result that accidents just don't seem to happen any more.

Thousands of cars enter the post every day, and none of their drivers drive fast. The M.P.s are alert and anyone who does drive fast “gets the word.”

We write this only to indicate that when nobody drives fast everybody stays alive.

The system at Ft. McPherson should answer those who say it can't be done.

Our Forest

By J. W. ROBERTS
B. C. Forest Ranger

Your new home is growing now.

Somewhere in Bulloch county the wood for your new home may be growing. It may be growing on one of the 284,083 acres which constitute the forestland of our county.

If these lands are protected from fire and managed wisely, they will produce trees. From these trees will come the lumber for more homes and the raw material to make thousands of other wood products.

Forest protection—the insurance which provides there will be plenty of trees for our future use—must begin locally. For this reason, each Bulloch county citizen has an individual responsibility to prevent forest fires in his community.

The careless flick of a cigarette through the window of a speeding automobile, the touch of a match to a trash pile on a dry, windy day, the carelessness of a hunter or camper in leaving a campfire unattended—all these spark forest disasters. They are acts which serve to reduce the supply of available timber and to burn up potential “new homes” which are growing in the forest today.

Nearly 100 per cent of our forest fires in Bulloch county are caused either by carelessness or indifference. Keeping our county green can be accomplished when each citizen abandons carelessness or indifference to the forest on his own part.

Next to our column here is a record of what the Georgia Teachers College has accomplished during the last year as compiled by Remer Tyson, editor of the college newspaper, The Georgia-Enit. Believing as strongly as we do that the college plays an increasingly important part in the progress of our community, we are reprinting Editor Tyson's report.

IN A NEW LIGHT

Our Congressman, Prince Preston, appeared before many of his friends in a completely new light Sunday afternoon. There he was—plain as daylight—on the TV screen. He was a guest of Savannah's new TV station, WTOG-TV, as they began their initial telecast.

With WTOG-TV, Savannah; and WBIF, Augusta, near enough for reception to be consistent and enjoyable, more and more homes are running up TV antennas here in Statesboro and Bulloch county.

YOU A BIG WHEEL?

Are you a big lady wheel in Statesboro? You a member of several civic clubs, bridge clubs, social clubs, P.T.A.'s? And you complain about never having time to do the things you would really like to do.

Well investigations by competent authorities reveal that a woman who rushes from her bridge club to P.T.A. to civic club, to Brownie Scouts, to garden club, is usually restless, unsatisfied and unhappy. It has been determined that the woman who likes homework, caring for her children, and who belongs to just ONE or maybe TWO organizations is more likely to be a happy one.

Oh well, it just seemed like a good idea to pass along. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Jake Smith allows as how people can be mighty forgetful. He says there are 40 folding chairs here in Statesboro belonging to the Smith-Tillman Mortuary—chairs loaned to people as a favor, chairs that are put away, forgotten by borrowers—forgetting that they were borrowed. Take a look around. If you see some strange chairs—folding chairs—look under the seat and see if the name “Smith-Tillman” is stenciled there. If so, call Jake, he'll come get them, and appreciate it—knowing that you just got too busy to return them, or you just plain forgot.

MISS MAE LOOKS GOOD

We hardly knew her. She was wearing a saucy little hat, and all dressed out in fashion's highest style. Miss Mae Michael was back “home” for T.C.'s Homecoming last week-end. We saw her at the dedication of the Howell Cone Hall. She looked good to us. We did not get time to talk long, but it made us happy to see her. She's now living with her sister in Decatur.

T. C. Marches On

This is a collection of the outstanding accomplishments, feats and changes T.C. has experienced during the past school year. They are presented in the order they occurred.

Newest addition to the campus is the nursery, located near the gymnasium, in which a child development class is taught. The nursery has a capacity of 12 children. Ten T.C. students are taking the course this quarter.

That students at T.C. are better than average according to the college scholastic standards made by the administration. The report shows that 86.6 per cent of grades issued for “C” or better. “A” accounted for 15.3; “B” for 36.4; “C” for 34.6 per cent.

James A. Hart, exchange teacher from England seems very well adjusted to Collegeboro. Teaching four classes in the Laboratory High School, he finds the climate warmer than windy England.

Kelly Powell and Muff Martin were the only members initiated into the “T” Club in the fall.

Masquers selected “Ladies of the Jury” as the fall quarter production, with Barbara Fossett getting the leading roles as Mrs. Livingston Baldwin Crane.

Sanford Hall sponsors T.C.'s first sock hop. The decorations consisted mainly of socks and a small combo of the T.C. band provided the music.

A new club was formed and given the name of “Cave Club” primary aims of this club was to promote journalistic interest on the campus, particularly the school paper.

Georgia Teachers College, runner-up in last year's Gator Bowl Tournament was again invited to return to the tournament. This is an annual affair and was played at Jacksonville Junior College.

T.C. was invited to enter a contestant in the Gator Bowl Beauty Contest. The Cave Club sponsored the affair.

Tuesday morning, November 3, all rats on campus were rudely awakened by the sophomores. The cold morning light marked the beginning of “Rat Day” 1953.

Twelve persons were selected for Who's Who in American Colleges. Those selected were, Rosie Ammons, Christy Trowell, Tommie Jean Corbett, Johnny DeNitto, Mary Helen Altman, Morris Davis, Yvonne Jones, Janice Chastain, Mary Flanders, Marilu H. Mills, Fred Pierce and Gene Roberts.

The Starlight Club, a semi-formal dance sponsored by the Alpha Rho Tau proved to be, as it has in the past, one of the outstanding dances of the year.

Miss Janel Fields of Portal was selected Miss T.C. Gator Maid of 1953. The alternate was Miss Patsy Edenfield, also of Portal. Both were freshmen.

Highriding, high scoring Professors placed second in the Gator Bowl Basketball Tournament. In doing so T.C. broke four records. The most points scored in game by any team (101) and Chester Webb 6' 6" center, from Elberton, set a new individual scoring record of 31 points in one game. The team also scored more points in the three game tournament than any other team bucketing 296 points.

Another record was broken by Chester Webb, this being the 59 points for the highest number of points scored by an individual in any three-game Gator Bowl Tournament.

The eighth annual Beauty Revue will be presented February 12 in the college auditorium by the Art Club. There are 21 entries for the much sought after title of Miss T.C. The theme of the Beauty Revue of 1954 was “Winter Wonderland.”

T.C. Professors had a good night in swamping Mercer 81-64 in one of the big games of the year.

The new seats and general face lifting of the auditorium was completed this quarter.

Help me keep my big mouth shut is a good motto

BY VIRGINIA RUSSELL

“Lord, help me keep my big mouth closed,” hangs in a big frame on a friend's kitchen wall. That motto is precious but for some folks we know very intimately it would cause miracles to happen, if big mouths would stay closed and some pencils should stay still, too.

Week before last we wrote about men's dislike for talking. The following Sunday the master of the house called us from the kitchen. Being an obedient wife, we went to him. Grieffully he waved before our eyes an article in the Atlanta Journal Magazine section, entitled “Do You Talk Too Many Words?” This was all he wanted.

Now, no woman likes to lose an argument with her husband and few can gracefully lose. We are no exception and we weren't going to lose easily to defeat. We took the paper and read while the dinner burned.

There it was in black and white: Atlanta skin specialists taking the man's side in this talking question. One magazine doctor (the paper said, “he said”), went so far as to say his five year old child was better off once a week, at this time of the year, “as we poured half a cup of sand into the 7 year old's shoes tonight and observed the dust from tips to way above knees, we could not help wondering how this would look by the next Saturday.”

Anyhow, we read on in the article on taking too many words. We even read that there is a name for people who have a compulsion for talking. Such a compulsion, we read, is called “psychoneurosis.” This was adding insult to injury. Now the family would have a new name for its only member who loves a bath a day.

After reading all the Atlanta doctors had to say, we grew very quiet. After all, we argued that a bath has a psychological effect on the bather. We weren't arguing from a physical standpoint, we said.

Monday the postman brought a card. Without giving way the writer, we quote:

“Dear F.D.R.: “After reading in the paper about your wife's stand on the distasteful subject of “Bathing,” I feel it my duty to extend my sympathy to a fellow victim. You are not alone! Chin up! Lock yourself in the bathroom, place dirt in tub water on floor, soap on rim, wet some towels, sing a song, then exit and room smelling of “Old Spice” and demanding clean socks.”

You will gain a smile from the wife and credit for “Bathing” and the future of seven wonderful days before the next order. If this formula does not work for you—your hot water will be refunded.

“Your friend in Grime.”

We admit we lost, and maybe we'll be quiet for a while but we won't eat the dirt! Not if we can help it.

Would you trade a Penny for a Dollar?

You can if you use Natural Chilean Nitrate of Soda for your top-dressing and side-dressing needs. It costs a little more because it's worth more. But the difference in cost usually can be measured in pennies per acre, while the difference in value often amounts to dollars per acre.

Chilean "Bulldog" Soda gives you generous extra value. The nitrogen is 100 per cent nitrate. It's 100 per cent available (quick-acting); 100 per cent dependable. The minor elements make crops stronger, healthier. The sodium-26 pounds in every 100-pound sack—is a key to maximum returns on your fertilizer investment. It offsets the bad effects of acid-forming fertilizers...increases the efficiency of mixed fertilizers containing them. It releases "locked-up" potash in the soil...increases the availability and efficiency of soil phosphorus...reduces potash, calcium and magnesium losses by leaching...develops larger, deeper root systems.

Sodium builds up the productivity of your land—more each year. It's an essential element for some crops...beneficial to most and necessary for maximum yields of many.

Pennies-per-acre difference in cost may mean dollars-per-acre difference in value to you. Chilean "Bulldog" Soda is the best fertilizer your money can buy. Use it for all of your top-dressing and side-dressing needs.

Mrs. Mikell served heart-shaped sandwiches, fruit cake, topped with whipped cream, and coffee.

Mrs. H. S. Watkins, who is moving away soon, was honored by a gift, a lovely brass pot hanging from a wrought iron stand. The members presented her with a small heart-shaped book in which friends wrote things that would hold them in memory of their close friend, Mrs. Watkins.

Small begonia pots were awarded as prizes in the contest.

Those present were Mrs. C. P. Claxton, Mrs. H. S. Watkins, Mrs. George Lee, Mrs. E. H. Hainly, Mrs. H. M. Tews, Mrs. Frank Upchurch, Mrs. Hugh Turner, and Mrs. O. M. Lanier.

NEVILLE—ROEDER The marriage of Miss Edna DeLoach Neville, of Savannah, daughter of Mrs. Edna DeLoach of Statesboro, to Gilbert Morris Roeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roeder of Hastings, Nebraska, took place Sunday afternoon, February 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Averitt, with whom the bride's mother had made her home for several years.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. E. L. Barnes and Mrs. C. L. Brewton, of East, S. C., aunt of the bride. She sang "Because" prior to the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at the conclusion.

Elder V. F. Agan performed the double ring ceremony of the living room before oriel windows which were draped with woodward fern. Seven beaded chandeliers ascended in height to the center forming an arch. Flanking the candles were massive arrangements of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

The bride was blond and lovely in her wedding suit of white flannel with the little boy collar bound in narrow white satin band, as were the cuffs and front of the coat which was fastened with small white satin buttons. The coat pocket was encrusted in crystal beads and pearls. Her small hat was a mere twist of ivory straw. Her bride's bouquet, blue lace with white ribbons and valley lilies. She entered with her cousin, Lemuel Neville, who gave her in marriage.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Josephine Scott, of Savannah. She wore a suit of pink tulle fashioned like that of the bride. Her bouquet was of pink carnations, violets and centered with red roses.

The groom was accompanied by William Reed of Savannah who served as his best man. Ushers were Clark DeLoach and Hal Averitt.

The bride's mother was lovely in a dior blue dress with V-neckline in front and back. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The continuous party reached its peak at 2:30 Sunday afternoon as the girls at Mrs. Bryant's kitchen combined their skills in preparing and serving luncheon for the guests in the lovely new private dining room. A massive arrangement of glads was used in the picture window. The T-shaped table had a beautiful container filled with red and white carnations. Placed at intervals down the length of the table were brilliant nosegays. Almost overlapping down the center were hors d'oeuvres and colorful garnishing as decorative as spring flowers. Dream of all the wonderful foods served at the kitchen and you may get an idea of what the girls prepared for this special occasion.

Covers were laid for fifty friends and relatives.

The relatives from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Solano, St. Augustine, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Crosby, Lenoir, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Ludy Crosby and sons, Richard and Robert, of St. Augustine; Mrs. Leon Purcell and son, Glenn, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hill, Brunswick; Mrs. Roy Pearson, Mrs. Jean Arnold, Mrs. Lord Solano, Jacksonville; Mrs. Guy Bryant, Mrs. Bobby Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Braddock, all of Brunswick; Mrs. Roy Bradham and children, Josephine, Gary, Royce, Marie and Carol Dean, Jessup; Mrs. Martin Uhl and daughter, Sherry, and Mrs. Bill Spicer of St. Augustine.

WHO BUT THE CHARLES BRYANTS? Let me roll up my writing sleeves. There's never been entertainment like this.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant and their daughter, Lavinia, were hosts.

Marguerite's mother, Mrs. J. B. Hill of Brunswick, Ga., furnished the inspiration for this family gathering.

As she was celebrating her 83rd birthday, and it has been 18 years since all of her family had been together. Realizing that all the rest and down-to-earth fun that marks a family gathering when you attempt to catch upon conversation to fill the gap since you last saw each other.

On Sunday morning "Brunch" was served from 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon, depending on the whims of each guest. The buffet presented sandwiches that were like beautiful Valentines. Some were heart shaped, others made of colored bread, were like ribbons in yellow, red, and green. Coffee and Coca-Colas were available at all times.
